

NEWS FLASH!!!

The British Powerlifting Organisation in Great Britain has been granted the official warrant to host the 2012 WPF World Championships.

The WPF thank and were very pleased to report that, they had received 4 bids from the following Nations:

Great Britain, India, Mexico and Nigeria.

An evaluation by the WPF on all the above bids in respect of location, dates, experience, meeting the lifting rules requirements, equipment and the meet director's agreements standards before deciding which came out best for the lifters.

Mexico has graciously given way in support of Great Britain's bid.

The WPF will continue to encourage existing and new Nations to embrace future bids to host World Championships.
